

HMC & GSA school, all-girls, boarding, 630 pupils, 11-18

WYCOMBE
ABBEY

HEAD

High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire
From September 2019 or January 2020

Wycombe Abbey is renowned nationally and internationally as one of the world's leading boarding schools. Known for its academic pre-eminence as well as strong pastoral care and fabulous extra-curricular and co-curricular programmes, this HMC and GSA school sets the agenda for the best in education. With 170 acres of beautiful parkland, the school is set on the edge of High Wycombe and attracts its 630 pupils from the UK and across the world. The global dimension is strengthened further by Wycombe Abbey International.

Following Rhiannon Wilkinson's highly successful tenure as Head, the Council of Wycombe Abbey seek an outstanding individual to take the school forward. The successful candidate will have a strong academic background, a passion for education and the best of educational innovation, the ability to be an advocate for the many benefits of boarding and a commitment to holistic education and promoting the wellbeing of young people. The next Head will be a person with warmth, humour, resilience, the ability to inspire and motivate staff and pupils and to win the trust and confidence of all stakeholders.
